What is the ARDC doing?

- Partnering with institutions around Australia who want to host workshops
- Getting more instructors trained
- Supporting the community

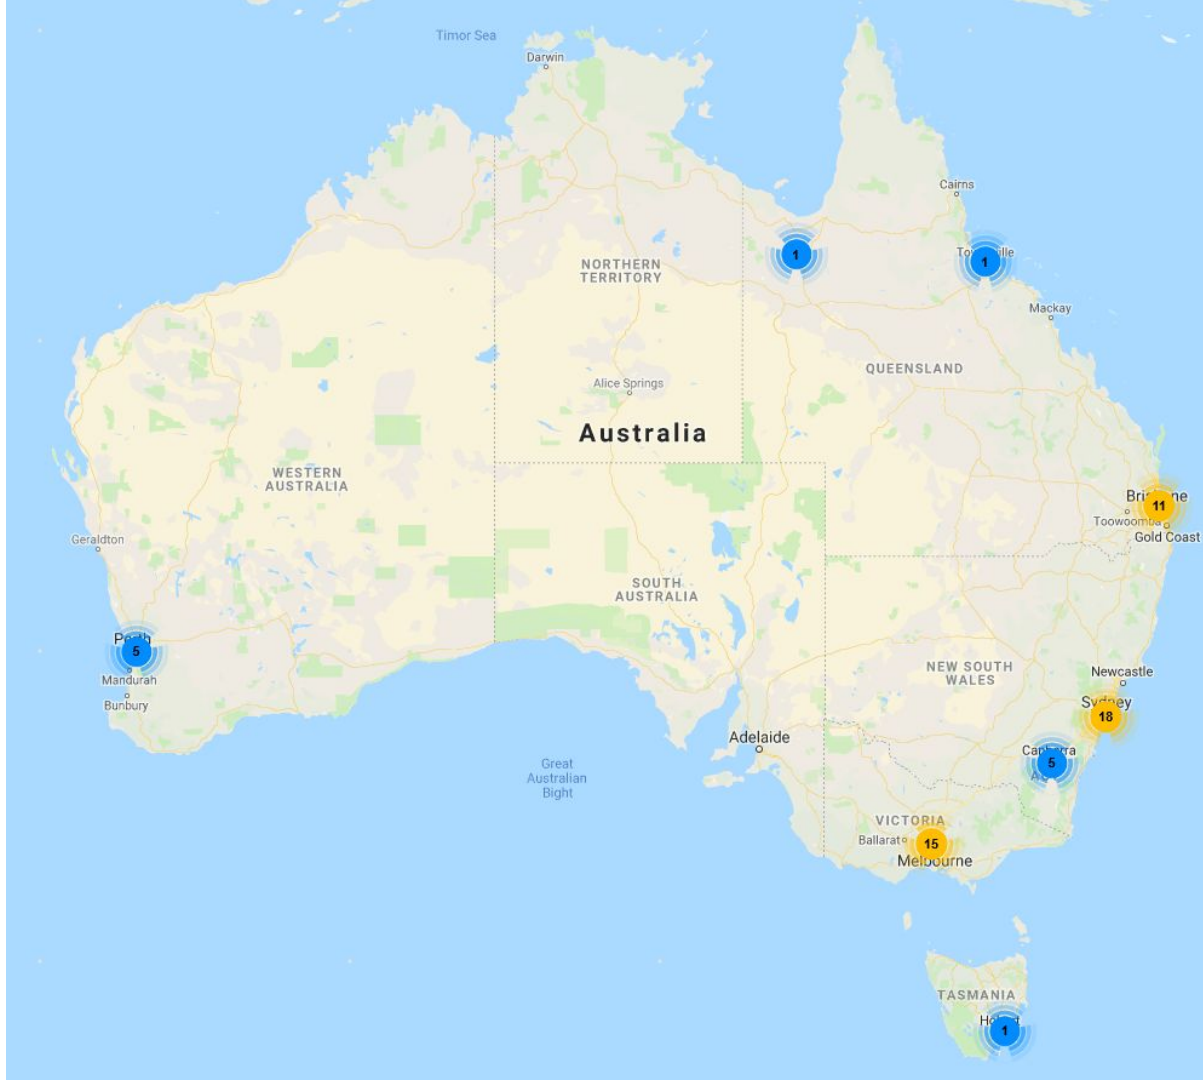

More workshops around Australia

These workshops should

- Gauge local demand for Carpentries training
- Identify local champions for the Carpentries
- Identify potential instructors
- Build collaborations within and between institutions to run ongoing workshops

More instructors around Australia

Supporting the community

How do we get on board?

- Get in touch with your local ARDC engagement officer
